

Senior Consultant (m/w)

As a rapidly growing consultancy start-up with an international scope of activities, our specialisation is the sustainable and consequent improvement of processes in the construction sector. We consult well-known construction companies, owners and engineering agencies in project delivery on the basis of lean construction to optimise all relevant processes with the project teams on-site and to ensure a sustainable added value.

If you are interested in Refine and would like to support us as well as our clients as a Senior Consultant, we offer the appropriate position and the right environment for you to get started.

Your role

- Responsibly for project consultancy throughout all phases, from analysis to the development of new methods within the construction industry (designing and realisation phases). Your deployment location will be the region with bases in Stuttgart, Germany, and Spreitenbach, Switzerland.
- Take part in expanding our network

Your profile

- You have a degree in architecture, civil engineering, project management, industrial engineering, mechanical engineering, or process engineering and have already gained experience in projects for the building industry
- Besides your excellent professional knowledge, you also have an affinity for sales
- Your English skills are good.
- You are interested in lean construction and you already have in-depth experience in this area as well as in project management
- You are motivated to help people in that improving their processes
- You are open for new topics
- You are creative as well as structured in your work and a sense of responsibility
- Your behaviour is professional and you are willing to travel
- You have strong moderation and presentation skills as well as analytical thinking

We offer you

- The chance to promote your personal development and thereby, improve us as well as our clients.
- Unique „office space“ in Stuttgart, Germany, and Spreitenbach, Switzerland, and a lot of interaction with other start-ups
- Always the freedom for creativity
- A team spirit that is characterised by openness and motivation
- As one of Refine's first employees, the opportunity to work on Refine's long-term success as part of the extended founding team

If your profile matches this position, we would be very happy to receive your application and offer you the opportunity to shape your and our future and to work in a young team with flexible working hours. Please send your application, including possible starting dates, to career@refineprojects.com or by post.